Hi Mike,

Can you advise which parish is located in the 7th ward or is there more than one. Also do you know which parish St. Peters Cemetery was under. I have been doing some tracking of family located in Troy in there mid to late 19th century and I do know that a portion, if not all, of their residence was in the 7th ward. Appreciate any assistance, Phil Organ in Ft. Worth, Texas

Hi

Would someone please list the parishes that are closing? Am particularly interested in the Watervliet parish of St Patrick's

Thanks

Hi

The parishes will close at different times in the next year or so, the two parishes St. Pat's and St. Bridget's will get most of the records I'm sure. The merger will have a new name as well.

There will be most likely 2 or three parish in Troy to follow the Watervliet Parishes.

Imm Conception
Our Lady of Mt Carmel
Sacred Heart of Mary
St. Joseph Green Island

St. Pat will stay open for now
St. Bridget's as well

Thanks

I believe Sacred Heart Of Mary is to be closed immediately and the following Immaculate Conception and Mount Carmel shortly. St Patrick's and St Brigid's will remain open in Watervliet along with St Joseph's in Green Island.

Usually when a church closes the records are sent to the church that remains open so when they combine the 3 parishes that will remain open into 1 parish it will go wherever they decide is the headquarters most likely St Pat's.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

While doing research on the surname O'BRIEN from Troy, I discovered an 1859 murder that occurred in the Village of Cohoes involving a Michael O'BRIEN. Michael was accused and convicted of the murder of his wife, Ellen, in their home on Canal Street (now Main Street).

In doing further research on the case, I obtained copies of newspaper accounts and court records. I am in the process of writing, not about the case itself, but about how it captivated my interest and led me down an unexpected path in my genealogy research.

I have extracted the names that appear in the sources used and will be happy to make those names available to those who are interested in having them. With only a couple of exceptions, the people named were residents of Cohoes (to the best of my knowledge).

Please e-mail me at: Marialis@nycap.rr.com and I will send you the names or answer any questions that I can. Please note that ONLY off-list requests will be honored.

Thank you.

Message from your List Administrator:

Did you know...there are now 88 members on this mailing list! I would like to see our mailboxes full of messages from members, old and new. Sharing information is what a mailing list is all about.

So...does anyone have a reference related to the Troy area and/or the Irish, that they'd be willing to do a look-up, for a limited time?

If so, post a message to the list, using "Look-up" and the name of the reference in the subject line, then give details in the posting. For example: "Look-ups: XYZ Troy cemetery records"

"Have book with XYZ burial records, willing to do look-ups for x number of days starting today. Pls provide surname and approx. date." (something like that)

Be sure to respond to the list and not just the individual, so that all can view the info.

Take a look around, we all have records or books or CD's, some with indexes.

Let's have some fun and make some finds!

I'm looking for a Sally McDonald who was age 50 in the 1850 Troy census. If she died and was buried there, it would have been sometime during 1850 on through 1857.

Thanks again, Donna.

This request related to previous request is from the same McDonald family.

Sometime between 1848 and 1850 Anthony and Bridget McDonald, both age 26, came to America from Ireland. With them was Sally McDonald, almost 50 years old, and their daughter Catherine, a baby, not even a year old.

They also had 3 or 4 sons born in Troy in a Catholic Church before leaving for Minnesota about 1857. Does anyone know who I can contact about this.

Thanks again,

Connie

I have a cd for the Tithe Applotments of the northern counties of Ireland: Antrim, Armagh, Derry, Down, Fermanagh and Tyrone

The Tithe Applotments were a unique land survey taken as a way to determine the amount of tax payable by landholders to the Church of Ireland. It represents a virtual census for pre-Famine Ireland since hardly any census records survived the 1922 civil war. Remember it only lists the head of household. Results will give: full name, county, civil parish, townland

Needed for look-up: surname

If you know first name and/or county that would narrow the results.

Please submit only one (1) per request. I will only honor requests posted to the list and will reply on list.

Have book "Irish Relatives and Friends" - Information Wanted ads from the Irish-American a weekly newspaper published in NYC for the Irish immigrant population. Contained popular classified section for people seeking information on relatives and friends, useful as they often state county, townland and/or parish from which an immigrant came. Please post inquiry directly to the list for the next week, when possible give full name not just surname as some common names have over 50 listings, this will narrow the search. Will be away from Saturday till Monday (19th to 21st), will reply before and ASAP after the 21st.

Okay so not quite as historical, but maybe you have found your family and wonder if there were family still living in Troy in 1949. You are all familiar with City Directories, families are listed alphabetically by surname and their address is given. Not all but some listings have the spouse's name as well.

Occupation is given in most listings.

Please post query to the list with first and surname for the next week.

I think it should be first thing on the agenda. Please let me apologize for not making sure that we stopped the other items with enough time the let you present while you were prepared the first time. I was not a very assertive or productive co chair.

I look forward to it. My Mahoneys were Green Islanders.

my father would take me to a bakery when I was a kid- in Green Island- we were from Latham. I think it was called Predigers? It seemed like it was a neighborhood institution. Usually a line. And Great heavenly smells - I can smell the cinamon buns that I would get yelled at for opening in the car! I remember him being sour when it closed. No more good corn muffins. I remember hearing the complaints for quite some time. Sad to see a place like that go. A little bit of that Troy area old tradition slipping into memory.

see you local non cold fearing TIGSers soon.

Mike

Have book "Irish Relatives and Friends" - Information Wanted ads from the Irish-American a weekly newspaper published in NYC for the Irish immigrant population. Contained popular classified section for people seeking information on relatives and friends, useful as they often state county, townland and/or parish from which an immigrant came.

Please post inquiry directly to the list for the next week, when possible give full name not just surname as some common names have over 50 listings, this will narrow the search.

Will be away from Saturday till Monday (19th to 21st), will reply before and ASAP after the 21st.

Donna~

Thank you for the donation of your time and efforts in doing look-ups! I'm looking for info regarding Edward & Elizabeth Clancy. Unfortunately I do not have much info...I do know that their son, William, was born in Troy/Brunswick in 1864. Edward was born around 1830 in Ireland. Any leads would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks!

Pat,

Thank you for your offer to the rest of us on the list.

Please look up John KEENAN at 731 Broadway, Watervliet. He was a whaler for 40 or 50 years. His wife Annie became ill in the 1890s and died about 1896. He apparently came ashore to care for her and opened a grocery in one side of their home, or perhaps in a house at the rear of the lot. I have conflicting information concerning when he was at sea after 1890, and would appreciate the 1893 city directory entry.

Pat,

Yes, thank you, this is him. It is my understanding that the area was first Port Schuyler, then West Troy and then Watervliet. I am hoping to find access to the city directories for 1895 and 1896 to see if they have information concerning the death of Annie KEENAN, which I have yet to nail down.

We always stopped at Predigers on the way back to Albany on Sunday evenings in the late 50ies or early 60ies after a visit to my grandmother Margaret Wallingford O'Neil on Jacobs Street or her sisters-in-law, Mary and Sally O'Neil at 108 Hoosick. The thought of it brings back great memories. I loved their chocolate chip cookies and jelly donuts. We listened to the Jack Benny radio show while we wolfed down those cookies and donuts on the drive back to Albany. My grandmother grew up in Green Island. My mother will be 88 in March, grew up on 460 8th Street in Troy and remembers accompanying her mother on a Jitney? Bus to Green Island where they would visit her grandmother Eliza Hooley Wallingford.

I am very interested in the presentation on Green Island. I am researching Legnard and Carrier (Carraher) from Green Island and Watervliet. I would be coming from out of state and need to arrange for a day off from work. Will the date be Wednesday, March 16?

Thanks

I would like a look up in the tithe applotments for a family by the name of Carrier (Caraher, Carraher, Caragher). Immigrated from Warrenpoint about 1828 so I'm sure they're from the counties stated. Thanks Marilyn Mahoney

I have a cd entitled "The Search for Missing Friends" which lists Irish Immigrant Advertisements placed in the "Boston Pilot" from 1831-1920. This is the Boston equivalent of the "Evangelist".

There are some listings for Troy. They list either people living in Troy or looking for relatives last known to live in the area. I know Pat Connors has some on the website but I believe this covers all seven volumes.

There are many McNamee's for the time period you mention, but no Lawrence.
Do you know the first names of his wife & children who were traveling with him?

Thank you very much for your offer to do look-ups.
I am looking for any CRANNEY living in the Albany/Troy/Watervliet area.
There weren't too many and any CRANNEY is definately my relative or ancestor. I was born in 1948 in Albany, NY, but my uncles lived in Troy. I am in no hurry so, please, take your time.

Thank you ver much

Below is every McNamee name I could find in the Troy area. It is typed exactly as written in the directory, even no spaces where spaces should be.

Most abbreviations are easy to figure out, such as r=residence, h=house, etc. Some of the others are:

recpt = receptionist

Lans = Lansingburg

clk = clerk

wid = widow

McNamee Betty V Mrs recpt Tilly Ladder Co h689 4th av (Lans)

Danl pres Wm H Frear & Co Inc r Loudonville, N Y

Florence Mrs repr wn Model Shirt Co r Averill Pk, N Y

Fred J (Carolyn B) h274 3d av (Lans)

Could you please look up JOHN A. WILLS in your 1910 directory? There were two of them, father and son.

Thank you very much for your offer.

Kevin,

Thank you.

- In 1944, do you see Lily or Lilian MAHAR (MEAGHER) KEENAN, widow of John B. KEENAN. After her husband's death in 1902 she lived in Watervliet, Troy and perhaps other cities. She was born 1874 and the last record I have of her is 731 Broadway, Watervliet in 1931.

- In 1959 do you see Catherine KEENAN HENNESSY, widow of Joseph HENNESSY. She died in 1959, but since the information for the directory was probably gathered in 1958, she may appear. She lived most of her life at 731 Broadway, Watervliet, but did spend some time in the Albany County Nursing Home, Albany.

There are no FALLON listings in the book. There are listings for BARRETT; Catherine, Hannah, John, Julia, Mary, Michael, Patrick, Patt, Richard and William. There are listings for DWYER; Anne, Catherine, Ellen, Hanah, James, John, Julia, Lawrence, Margaret, martin, Mary, Matthey, Maurice, Michael, Peggy, Richard, Thomas, Thomas N. and William.

Do you have any more information, first name, county in Ireland, location in the states to go by?

Kris,

Many thanks but the Pawling Avenue address was taken from his obituary in January 1899. In the periods between 1849 and 1899 his addresses had been on Hoosik Street and another. He was through the years associated in the wool industry and knitting business. He had been associated with a party named Ranken in the knitting business and the firm was Ranken and Organ. Earlier he was associated with a John Consalus in the wool business. As was pointed out in an earlier reply he represented the seventh ward in the Com,mon Council.....Phil Organ

Pat, please check the list later before driving any distance to attend. To date we have you and one other member possibly attending that could result in only 3 of us being there. I would hate to have you drive to attend only to find an empty room. You may want to wait till next month as there appears to be a great interest in the Green Island Presentation by Donna Vaughn that will result in much better attendance. The next meeting would be on March 16th, the 3rd Wednesday of the month.

Anthony McDonald age 26 departed Liverpool arr NYC 8/15/1842, ship "Southerner", M237-50

There are many Bridget's but none that seem to have come on either of these ships. No Sally around that age of 50, and no Catherine that fits that description.

I have been enjoying the posts on Prediger's Bakery in Green Island. Those of you who are middleaged like me, Catholic, and went to Catholic grammar school, may remember fasting before daily Mass, which was before school started each morning. We were starving when we got out of Mass at St. Joseph's in Green Island, and would run as fast as we could the 2 or 3 blocks to Prediger's to stuff our faces with fresh glazed doughnuts (the raised kind), then hurry back so we weren't late for school. Only 5 cents each for those delicious doughnuts! They were also well known for their rye bread, both plain and with caraway seeds.

Well I last checked my email at 330 before going to a dental appointment in Latham. And then I stopped at GUS' Hotdogs on the way to Troy, another timeless neighborhood institution in Watervliet, I think on 25th Street. Been there since the 1950s. Room for about 3 and a half people including the cooks and great little half size hotdogs with coronary-abusive meat toppings for 50 cents. Another one of those old school the way it used to be neighborhood joints.

Well to my point. I walked into the 3rd floor at the CDCCA and was the sole attending member of TIGS meeting. Well, elections were held this month. I was unanimously elected supreme commander and CEO of TIGS, with JD Dollard being elected my VP in charge of security. All results binding.

I will post the minutes pending approval of attendees.

Donna you misread my post. I was elected SUPREME COMMANDER, not el-presidente. But as supreme commander I shall appoint myself President also. You sound like you would make a good presidential advisor. As well as top notch secretary. Oh, and Ambassador to Green Island.

Mike.

ps I'm really crying inside. Wendy laughed at me that I was the only one there!

LOL, guess what, Michael, we may take you seriously here! So...since you are the new President (and you didn't mention Secretary so I vote for you for that too), please add me to the BEGINNING of your agenda for the March 16 meeting as the presentor for the evening. I promise to do a brief but informative presentation on the history of Green Island.

Yes. It took a while for me to count the vote. I was a psychology major for 6 years at a 4 year school, I wasn't a math major.

In actuality the business aspect of the meeting took about the time it took me to poke my head out of the elevator at the darkened, very quiet third floor and then hit the close door button. Afterwards there was some colorful, "informal" discussion amongst the attendEE on the way out of the building about how the meeting went! Had I not had to come to work afterwards I would have invited all present to my victory celebration.

I will consider it Rick, due to the fact that we were co chairs together. There will however be knot tying tests before such a position of naval authority may be assumed. The traditional green plastic Irish admirals hat will need to be worn at all meetings in place of the usual red fez for such a post. As well as all appropriate tassels and dress shoulder garb, fruit salad, etc.

On second thought, so that I do not irritate any of the less amusable members if TIGS, and due to the excessive pressure placed upon me by my high position in the society and the adverse affects it has had on my personal health, I shall resign my authority and place it back in the hands of all those of you who have all along selflessly assumed the various positions and time consuming burden of leadership in our society and done an excellent and appreciated job of it.

Some people wonder if it is better in leadership to be respected or to be feared. I am certain that I, in my brief stint as TIGS high commander, unfortunately, have instilled neither.

See you all next month!!! That's just about near our BIG holiday, isn't it?
erin go braghh!

Hi, Jim,

There are so many George Thompson's, even with the timeframe you gave, I need to narrow this down. Do you have an approximate age he would be, when he came over c. 1833? There are so many, mostly ports of London and Liverpool.

Also please clarify re wife Catherine. Was she Catherine Murphy when she came over? Or had they already married. I also need an approximate age for her when she immigrated.

Thanks,

For those Prediger's Bakery lovers, I intend to include this topic in my Green Island presentation at the March meeting. Do you know the original name of the bakery? How about the number of sites where it operated on Green Island at different times in history? Come to the March meeting and learn more about this, and other Green Island landmarks and history.

I think that Donna is a decision that you are free to make and I think it is a great idea. Might even attract some future members and attendance As to the date of the meeting, since no one else is commenting, I am going to assume that it will be on March 16th at the CDCCC at 6:15.

Attendance was wonderful until we switched location and in doing so had to change the night because of availability. Since then the attendance has declined to 1, would have been 2 but not knowing the Commander was going to come, I didn't want to sit on that 3rd floor alone either....

I know I am looking forward to this presentation and will be there, but I still want the Commander to come and be the secretary too.

As to the Commander I suggest some of us plan on a corned beef dinner and drinks the next night "THE 17th" in honor of good old St. Pat.....Kris Kris

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

The Ballykilcline Society wishes TIGS listers to know about this gathering in June in Strokestown, County Roscommon, which the Society will open to registration by interested non-members after March 10:

Dr. Des Norton of UC Dublin to Speak at Ballykilcline Society Reunion '05

The Dublin professor who is analyzing the archive of records from Ireland's Famine-time land agents Stewart and Kincaid will be the keynote speaker at the Ballykilcline Reunion in Strokestown and Kilglass on June 23-25. Dr. Des Norton will speak at the dinner on June 24.

The Society's third Reunion in Roscommon since 1999 will begin with registration at the Percy French Hotel in Strokestown at 2 pm on Thursday, June 23. The informal opening session will begin at 2:30. Nollaig McKeon of the Roscommon County Council will describe the county's heritage efforts. A buffet dinner that evening will take place at 6 pm at the Percy French Hotel.

On Friday, participants will be free to visit the Famine Museum or county heritage center (both an easy walk from the hotel), the county library in Roscommon town, local cemeteries, or pursue private interests. A hosted research discussion will take place at 3 pm at the hotel.

Dinner on Friday will take place at the Percy French at 6 pm. Dr. Norton will speak. Reunion-goers will convene for breakfast on Saturday at 9:30 am at the hotel. The meal is the closing session of the Reunion, which will end by noontime.

Other invited speakers include James Callery and John O'Driscoll, owner and curator respectively of the Famine Museum, and a representative of the Roscommon county library.

The Reunion registration fee, which is non-refundable, is $100 per person. It will cover two dinners, Saturday breakfast, and the speakers' program. Participants must make their own travel and lodging arrangements for the event.

This is the first Reunion in Ireland since '02 when the Discovery Channel program about Ballykilcline, Famine to Freedom: The Great Irish Journey, was filmed there. The program premiered in September 2003 on the show Moments in Time. We will screen the program during the Reunion if equipment is available to do so

The deadline for registration for the Reunion is April 10. While Society members receive priority for making reservations for several weeks, registration will be opened after March 10 to non-member researchers. If response is extraordinarily high, registration may be limited.

Contact Mary Lee Dunn at MaryLDunn@aol.com for the registration form which has instructions for payment and mailing. The Reunion program has been set so that participation does not require a rental car.

The Society, organized in 1999, is a non-profit organization dedicated to learning about the Famine-time history of eastern Roscommon and tracing members' family lines and histories in several countries. Past Reunions have been held in Strokestown (1999 and 2002); Lowell, Massachusetts (2000); Vancouver, BC, Canada (2001); and Butte, Montana (2004). Members live in the U.S., Canada, Ireland, and England.

The membership dues are $15 a year, entitling members to two newsletters a year. The Society's Research Committee is acquiring records related to members' ancestry, and to the local history from many sources, including the National Library of Ireland, the National Archives of Ireland, and local newspapers. The Society has an Internet list-serve through Rootsweb.

The Capital District Genealogical Society will have an open meeting (free to the public) on Sat. The speaker is one I am familiar with; it's Jean Nudd, Archivist at the National Archives in Pittsfield. She is very knowledgeable. Hello all:

Just a heads up! I received my newsletter from the CDCAA yesterday and it said on the front page that they were moving to their "New Home" on Columbia Turnpike in mid-March. I'm guessing that we would not want to move with them so we are once again in the position of having to find another place to meet.

Any suggestions? IS the Mahr's Dart League finished for the season?

How about the Troy Library, now that our meeting day is Wednesday? (they were booked on the 3rd Thurs. in the past). If we could get there by 6:00 pm, we'd have an hour and a half for the meeting, which should be plenty of time. Those of us who choose to, could go on from there for refreshments after the meeting. I'll be happy to look into it, if anyone is interested.

I believe their meeting room is on the second floor?

A strange thing has been going on for me: for many months now, I have received only a few messages from the list each day, although before that, there seemed to be many more each day. Hi Donna, In regards to the THOMPSON,s; in the 1850 census, George was 52 & Catherine was 48. So GEORGE was b.1798 and CATHERINE was b.1802. If they came over in 1833,GEORGE would have been 35 and CATHERINE was 31.

In the 1855 census, GEORGE was b.1799 and CATHERINE was b.1804. If they came over in 1833, GEORGE would have been; 34 and CATHERINE 29.

According to my father; GEORGE THOMPSON was a drummer in the ENGLISH ARMY and was stationed in Ireland, where he met ANNA CATHERINE MURPHY . I would think their parents would have insisted they marry before coming to America. I don't know if it was in ENGLAND or IRELAND. I do know that CATHERINE dropped the ANNA part of her name because it does not appear on either of the census.

I hope this helps. Thanks so much Donna. Regards, Jim Thompson

I called the CDCCA today, and they will definitely still be open at the Troy location through the end of March. I think we should go with that for our March 16 meeting-- It's already listed on the website. We could discuss the future meeting place at that meeting.

Who is chairing the meeting, please? I'd like to do my Green Island presentation at the beginning of the meeting, as discussed.

Thanks,

Stupid me I think I even walked through it to get tickets to the Ellis Island ferry about 2 years ago.

My name is Helen Rowley, from Schenectady - and I am loving all the email I get to read - and I hope to come to a meeting sometime.

There is a film called "Molders of Troy" a documentary about the importance of the iron industry in Troy. It explains the process and dangers of casting molten iron. Some of my relatives - who arrived in Troy in the early 1860's have job titles like: rougher and puddler and I think these must describe their part in the assembly of the stoves. - A mounter may have been toward the end of the process - I'm not sure - but if the group has never viewed the film that would be good for an agenda some time.

My Troy Irish history:

My grandfather, Robert Batters was born in Ireland 3/7/1860, and arrived in Troy on 5/30/1864 as a 4 year old child. My great-grandparents, Robert and Mary Luby Batters brought him along with Thomas, age 7, Catherine age 3, and John, an infant. They sailed from Liverpool on the "London & Westminster."
(And I think they may have gone through Castle Garden)

My grandfather, Robert J. Batters married Alice H. Purcell. Alice was born in Troy to John C. Purcell and Joanna Williams Purcell, both of Ireland. Alice was the older sister of Philip J. Purcell of the Purcell Brothers funeral home. Robert Batters was a Troy Policeman and I have a Police yearbook -I believe it may be 1902 - but it is on loan to my brother at the moment. I also have a handwritten book which contains some poems or songs.

Robert Batters and Alice Purcell Batters lived the rest of their years in Troy and had four children who lived. The third born, Thomas Batters born 1/27/1893 was my father. I was born in 1950 one of four children born to him after he married our Mom at the age of 50. So - in just two generations - I go back to 1860 and Ireland.

We grew up in Guilderland, but visited his two sisters on Park Blvd in the 50's and early 60's until they died.

I want to know more, of course, especially exactly where they came from in Ireland. So as I said - I hope to join you.

Sorry to say I don't know his name. Jane is a lovely lady in her 80's now.

Hope you can make a meeting. The next one of 3/16 should be very good with a presentation by Donna Vaughn on Green Island.

I am trying to figure out why my gggrandfather was "out of town" from approx 7/1853 to 6/1854. Wondered if there was some type of work project (RR building, etc.) in the area that would have pulled men away from home. Here is the situation:

In 1850 census, John and his parents were living in West Troy. John, born in Scotland, is an 18yo weaver and is not naturalized.

In July 1853 he married a West Troy girl and they apparently lived in that area.

In the 1855 census, John is living in Watervliet, and it indicates that he has lived in town for 11 months. His wife is listed as having lived in town for 4 years. At the time of the census, they have a 2 month old child (born 3/1855), so apparently he came back around mid-1854, and I assume the reunion was happy as they had several more children in quick succession. He is an axemaker in the 1855 census.

Just can't figure out why he left his new bride for a while unless it had to do with earning a living. (or maybe incarceration?)

Any ideas??

Thanks
Susan in GA

Helen,

My g grandfather, Edward Wallingford, was a molder from Green Island and at one time head of what I think was called the International Molders Union in Troy. I'd be very interested in the movie. I'm told that molders were highly skilled. I believe it entailed the creation of a wooden form into which molten iron was poured and cured. If the mold did not cure properly or if it developed cracks, you would have to start anew and this was expensive. David

Wow - that is great - All my father's family were buried by the Purcell Funeral Home. From my grandmother's obituary - and the 1880 census I know the Purcell family came over sometime around 1860. This is what I know:

Head of the family:	John C. Purcell	b. 1832	Ireland
Wife	: Joanna Williams Purcell	b. 1835	Ireland
Children	Thomas	b. 1856
Ireland
	John J.	b. 1858
Ireland	died after 3.10.23
	Alice (my grandmother)	b. 9.5.61
Troy	d. 3.10.23
Frank		b. 1862	Troy
	Maggie	b. 1865

I say 1860 as an approximate arrival date because my grandmother was the first American born child.

The Philip J. Purcell who knew my parents and my father's sisters in Troy was a grandchild of John and Joanna. I know this from a grave marker that was erected in memory of John & Joanna by their grandchildren one of whom was Philip J. Purcell. His grave marker says January 23.1915 to December 20, 1975.

His sister was Mary Purcell Wood, whose husband Charles R. Wood has a marker with dates of October 22, 1912 - March 27, 1956.

At this point I don't know which of the "kids" listed above were the parents of Phil and Mary, but I think Phil and Mary were siblings. Also - the family listed above lived on 4th Street in the 1880 census.

This is probably more information than you ever wanted - but since your daughter is now a Purcell - it may be helpful to someone.

Thank you for writing - and I will try to make the meeting.

Actually the Purcell granddaughter is now an Ayotte, my son married her.
This is a name that was discussed previously on the list and I believe there are other TIGS members who were researching the Purcell name in Troy.
