I just wanted to remind everyone that we have a SURNAME section on our website. Many of us have submitted our surnames for this page, but have not provided a writeup or summary that can be linked to the name. I'm in the process of completing my own writeups for each of my surnames, and I urge everyone to do the same. I include my Email address on each one, and I have hooked up with other researchers this way.

You can submit your surnames and information for each, to our Webmaster, Jeanne Keefe, at keefej@rpi.edu

Hello everyone,

First, I'd like to thank Jeanne Keefe, TIGS webmaster, for her time and effort in putting the Emlý pages on the TIGS website. Her work is sincerely appreciated.

There have been a couple of recent additions to those pages that may interest some of you.:

I will gladly do lookups in "The Gravestone Inscriptions of Emlý" by Michael O'Dwyer. A brief description of this book can be found on the TIGS website. If you'd like to request a lookup, please send me an email and include the full name of the person you are seeking.

A personal reflection on my first visit to the village of Emlý has also been added to the Emlý pages on the TIGS website. Writing about this experience has tapped a wellspring of rich memories. It has reminded me that the rewards of genealogy lie not only in the information we discover but, more importantly, in the people that we meet along the way. I hope I have conveyed the warmth and generosity of the people I met in Emlý and my deep gratitude for their help.

The Emlý material can be found at

I was delighted to see all the Emly-Troy information; Fr. Rochford really is a treasure. And thank you for all your efforts in getting it listed here.

My cousin Loretta Nial would have been delighted to see her information on this web site; she was most anxious that genealogists have free access to her work.

May I suggest you include the link to the entire book on Pat Connors' site on this page? There is so much wonderful information here that should be shared.

<<http://www.rootsweb.com/~nyrenss2/Troy/tombstone.htm>>

As far as the Crowe information, that is one of our family lines; hence the large amount of information.

And yes, the Crowes were most definitely from Emly.

Have been trying to find the family of my grandmother.
They lived in Troy in 1905 and they had 4 daughters.
James Campbell and wife Catherine (Higgins).

Daughters:

Margaret age 9

Florence age 7

Agnes age 5

Helen age 2

Ruth age 8 months

I believe one of them married a Sprague and another married a Smith.

In 1920 they were all living at 309 Third Street in Troy and living with them was Margaret Higgins age 45. I believe she was the sister of Catherine.

If anyone has information about this family, please contact me.

Thanks

Barbara

Do you have any info on James Campbell?
My ggrandfather, George Campbell of 518 2nd St, Troy, was born in Derrylard, Co Amagh, Ireland. He was born ca 1849.

I have transcribed all Campbell entries for most of the state and federal censuses for Troy and found your family in the following years:
1910, 1915, 1920, 1925: living at 309 3rd St 1920, sister in law, Margaret Higgins living with them

1930 is still a work in progress and not indexed.

Subject: [TIGS] Hugh & Catherine Sullivan - Troy, NY - 1860

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Hello from Montreal!

I have been "stuck" for a few years trying to track down my great grand-Mother, Mary Elizabeth, Margaret Sullivan, born July 4, 1860 in Troy, Rensselaer Co., NY. The family was Roman Catholic. I learned that I cannot order a search of Mary Elizabeth's Birth, because her Birth date is too far back.

I found a Hugh & Catherine Sullivan in the 1860 US Census, and residing in "Troy - Ward 7, Rensselaer, NY" - both parents are born in Ireland - Hugh works as a labourer and Catherine in a grocery store. Their other children are Patrick (b/ England), Dennis, Catherine and a Mary B. (born 11/12) - last 3 children born in NY State. I could not find Hugh & Catherine Sullivan in the 1870 Census for Troy, NY.

>From Mary Elizabeth's Marriage Certificate in Montreal, Qc (1881), to

>Daniel

McLaughlin (St.Mary's Church), her parents are stated as Hugh and Catherine Sullivan - at the time of their daughter's wedding (1881) the parents lived in Montreal. From LDS I found a Hugh Sullivan married to Catherine Darragh.

The parents are from Ireland. Via Rootsweb Hugh Sullivan and Catherine Darragh are noted, as one daughter (the only child mentioned) is Anne Burgess Sullivan (b/1877) - she married (1893) Wilhelm/William Nolff/Nulff - I was in touch with someone from the Nulff family - they did not have anything on my Mary Elizabeth or on her parents.

I need confirmation of Mary Elizabeth's birth and her mother's maiden name.
Many thanks for your help,

Anne, Montreal

I can only tell you that the Higgins family were cousins to my grandmother Mary Gallagher and I believe they also came from Ardfert in County Kerry. I also have been told there was a Bryan (that is the spelling) Higgins who came to the US fought in the war and went back to Ireland and taught school. That is all I know about him.

I believe the Higgins family lived in the area called the commons in Ardfert.

My gr. grandfather James Gallagher was from Ulster originally and we believe he went to Ardfert to work on the Cathedral since his occupation is listed as a mason.

Any connection?

Subject: [TIGS] Langton O'Keefe Borden Clark

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Good morning. I have a Troy Irish history connection. Any connections?

My great grandmother was Mary Langton O'Donohoe. She was the daughter of Mary Keefe (Keefe or O'Keefe) and James Langton. I have the street address it is 83 10th Street. James was born in Ireland but I have no idea where. I did order and received his death certificate from the state of New York.

I found a James Langton on the Troy site and believe that this is my g-g grandfather James Langton -- born in approximately 1822 who emigrated from Dublin, Ireland in 1851.

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~nyrenss2/naturalization/1856RensselaerCoNatDeclarationsPart2AtoL.htm>

>From the census it says he was a retail grocer. The handwriting on his death certificate was very messy but it looks as if his father's name was Patrick Langton and --- wait until you hear this ---- his mother was ELIZABETH BORDEN (not the Lizzie Borden!) Mary Keefe Langton --- was born in the 1830-s and her father was Richard Keefe and her mother was Annie Clark. I also have the spelling as O'Keefe and not Keefe in other documentation.

Mary and James lived at 83 10th Street. I don't know if the house is still there because on MapQuest it looks as if it's on the campus of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. In 1880 three of Mary Keefe's daughters worked as collar makers.

It looks as if relatives lived on both sides of James and Mary.

William Keefe -- I

assume one of Mary's brothers who had a son name Richard Keefe lived on one side and William Langton lived on the other.

Mary Langton O'Donohoe was married in Troy to Dr. James T.C. O'Donohoe of Ireland and they resided in Manhattan. They were married in the 1880s. Mary's parents are buried in St. Peter's.

I have made contact with a distant Langton cousin up there via telephone. I believe this connection was through a sibling of Mary Langton's -- James Langton.

Mary had a father, a brother, a husband and a son all with the names of James! To make matters even more confusing her husband James O'Donohoe's parents are named James and Mary (Corcoran) and of course.....James had a sister Mary.

Other names I've seen in an obituary of Mary's sister Catherine are Kennedy and Dollard -- possibly related but not sure how.

I've never visited Troy but I might possibly visit this summer to take my daughter to visit RPI this summer.

Barbara,

It gets stranger and stranger. My grandfather was Patrick Gallagher; as far as I know right now he had two brothers - Denis and John. Denis who was married to Winifred Higgins and died at my grandfather's house (515 2nd Street, South Troy) in March 1894 from a fractured skull. A cousin who is the greatgranddaughter of John paid for a record search in Ireland for Denis and Winifred because we knew more about them than the others. They were from Cappamore Parish in Co. Tipperary and were married there in 1867.

Our families are probably not related but there are many similarities.

Kathleen, you are right it does get stranger and stranger.

I suspect our Gallaghers were possibly from Donegal, but never found James Gallagher's death certificate. Kate (Stack), his wife, was listed as married in 1901 and the wife of a laborer. He was not on the census, so we assume he work away from home as did two of their children at that time. By the 1911 census she was a widow. It really can be frustrating to find the missing links, but we keep going and sometimes we get real lucky.

Joan,

The two articles are wonderful and give an insight of what life was like for the Irish immigrant. I am currently reading a book, "The Crazy Ladies of Pearl Street" It tells a story of living in the Irish slums of Albany in the 1930s. It is well written and humorous. If any one gets a chance, read it.

Last year, as part of a family genealogy book, I wrote a few pieces about my Irish ancestors' experiences of life in Troy. Jeanne Keefe added two of the articles--one regarding Iron Workers and one regarding Collar Workers--to the Troy Irish History page of the TIGS website. <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/IrishHistoryPage.htm>

I hope they will be of interest to TIGS members and others who visit the site.

Thanks, Jeanne.

Hi,
I noticed some time ago, your request on the Kildare website, for some information on the Clinton family. My apologies for the delay in writing, but I have only some minor information and had misplaced your e-mail address.

I live near Mylerstown (which is just a townland) near the village of Robertstown. There are 3 small fields which although now owned by somebody else now, would still be referred to as Clintons fields. It is common for farmers in Ireland to refer to fields in this way - with most fields having names to identify them - e.g. top field, bottom field, or as in this case, the previous owners names.

They are located on a bog road in Mylerstown which is a very quiet peaceful area. There are no houses now on this little bog road and it is used only for farmers to access lands and for people to access the bog to bring their turf home. I ride my horse on this road as it is safe and quiet.

On enquiry, I found out that there were ruins of an old house which would have been the Clintons house in one of these fields up to maybe 10 or 15 years ago, but these are gone now.

I don't have any knowledge or information on the Clinton people you named in your e-mail as it is quite a way back.

Anyway I hope this is of some interest to you.
Kind regards,
Martine Hennessy

Martine,

It certainly is. Thank you for going to the trouble to tell me about it. The next time I go to Kildare, I will check it out further.

May you and your horse enjoy your rides!

My grandmother, Mary Delaney Waters Callahan was also from Green Island, raised there by her stepfather and mother, James and Mary Anne Waters. They lived on the corner of Arch and Pine in the late 1800's. according to Mary Anne's obituary(Troy Record, September, 1929), she was "well known" in Green Island.....I suspect, that she was very active, politically, though I am not sure. That's interesting, Mimi! I don't recall coming across that name before, but I will look through what I have.

Did you mean "Paine" St.? I have an 1866 map of Green Island. Pine St. is way down near Albany Ave. and does not intersect with Arch. Paine and Arch, however, do intersect. I don't know which of the 4 corners you mean. There was a McGrath on one of the corners, I believe. I don't remember the other ones. Of course, I am talking about more recent years now. I believe our Ginger on this list lived at that corner at one time. Maybe she'll see this and will remember the names of the other families.

My Devlin's lived at 21 Arch in the late 1880's, a few houses from the intersection with Paine. I'll bet our families knew each other.

Heritage-Quest Online combines digital searchable images of U.S. federal census records with the digitized version of the UMI Genealogy & Local History collection and other valuable content. Access from the home computer as well as from library computers is available. Ancestry Library Edition is one of the most important genealogical collections available. It has unparalleled coverage of the U.S. and U.K., including census, vital, church, court and immigration records as well as record collections from Canada and other areas."

I have free access to Heritage Quest On line through a local library but could not get through initially. Finally realized that I had to temporarily disable my firewall program after I got to the library site to access Heritage. Once on the Heritage site, then I re-enabled the firewall. You might keep, this in mind if you run into problems with the access. Don't know wether the problem was Heritage or the Library site. Might possibly be my Firewall setup.

Their census listings are for 1790, 1800, 1810, 1820, 1860, 1890, 1900, 1920, 1920, and partial 1930. Plus other features, try it you'll like it, and its free.

Greetings!

My gr-grandfather, JOHN REYNOLDS, had children MICHAEL and MARIA REYNOLDS with their mother, MARGARET MOONEY, in CO. GALWAY, 1867 and 1869 respectively.

1880 Census record shows their uncle THOMAS MOONEY and his family, including JOHN, and PATRICK MOONEY, his brothers in MANHATTAN.

I have a copy of MICHAEL REYNOLDS' naturalization record, dated Oct. 17, 1888, address is LINCOLN AVE., BRONX (?)

1900 Census finds MICHAEL REYNOLDS living with cousins named MOONEY in the BRONX.

1910 and 1920 Federal Censuses record him as living in YONKERS with his wife and children.

MARIA REYNOLDS apparently married a man named WILLIAM HAHN, and in 1896 had a daughter in BECKER'S CORNERS, BETHLEHEM. We have them on the 1900 Census and the 1905 NY State Census in COLONIE. In 1910, William is listed as a widower and there is no mention of their daughter.

Any information would be gratefully received, and we have more to share as well.

Thank you.
Sheila

My great grandparents, John and Jane (ANDERSON) REYNOLDS, arrived in Green Island in March of 1882, from Co. Galway with sons William Martin, John Joseph, and Patrick. Other children were born here, but only my grandfather, James Francis, lived.

Records for John's aunt, BRIDGET REYNOLDS, (died 1885) wife of SIMON REYNOLDS, of Green Island, list :

SARAH KENARY , and JAMES, RICHARD, and WILLIAM WALSH, all of Troy, as her surviving siblings.

Hope someone is researching these names or has info to share.

Mimi,

Thank you for responding. I wonder whether you, or anyone on the list, has ever made an appointment to look at the registers at St. Joseph's.

How far back do they go and are they fairly complete?

Or have you (anyone) requested/received copies of records from St. Joseph's?
Does it take very long to get them?

Thanks,
Sheila

Yes, St. Joseph's has been the only Catholic church in Green Island since it was founded in 1868.

However, some of the Catholics went to St. Patrick's in Watervliet, and some to St. Bernard's in Cohoes, both founded in the 1840's, if their families had come from those parishes from previous generations.

Hi Everyone,

I like to welcome Richard Organ from Ohio to the TIGS Mailing List. He is researching his GGF Patrick Organ's family.

Just to let everyone know, Richard thinks our group is most interesting and intriguing. I always knew we were, it is nice to hear it though.

Happy Summer Days,

Lizette

Sheila,

Several years ago I requested info from St. Joseph's. They told me there records were not kept well and, not complete. I have never actually gone to look at their records. Would love to though since several relatives on my grandmother's side went to this church (Corrigan, Gardner).

My great-grandparents, Mary Langton (born in Troy) and James O'Donohoe (born in Ireland, were married in 1894 at St. Paul the Apostle's. It looks as if this parish began in 1890. Does anyone know what parish would have been the predecessor?

Mary was born and raised at 83 10th Street.

Thanks!

PS -- I've never been to Troy and am just a novice at genealogy -- (hobby of 2 years) --- I've found the Troy site very helpful!

I went to St Joseph's a few years back and saw Father Kelly who I know from grade school and at first look in the records for me and couldn't find anything but then I sweetly talked him into letting me look at the books in the office and I did find quite a few family baptisms and marriage records. Would love to go back there but know maybe with the merger of St Joseph's with the Watervliet churches it might be easier to see the records. Father Kelly is now retired and living in an apartment in Green Island I believe and is helping out as needed.

I wonder if the records would stay in Green Island or go to St Pat's in Watervliet?

Searching following names in Green Island
MARTIN,DEWANE,BOLAND,CRUICKSHANK,GINTY,PETTIT

Thought I would share my experiences with St Joseph's.

Probably not, but take a look at the libraries in your own state, you may find one with the same database online. Also Godfrey in CT offers this plus many other databases for a mere $35/year.

Perhaps some of us are not aware of this particular reference at the Troy Library. It's called TPL (for Troy Public Library) Surname Index to Cemeteries, 929.1H. It is indexed by surnames and then directs you to the reference(s) in the library with that surname (for cemeteries). It saves going thru all the cemetery references on the shelf looking for a particular surname.

If I ever get another day off from work, I will attempt to stop by there and see what I can find out. I think it would probably be best to stop by in person. I probably have so many ancestor records there, I could spend at least a whole day looking & copying them (if I could just get in the door!)

Hey Kathleen.

I know you're busy so when you get a chance...I was wondering whether your Catherine Powers (b. about 1868) was the daughter of John Powers and Mary Mackey. John's brother, Edward Powers, was my g.g.grandfather. If you have any info on this family, please let me know.

Next, would you be able to look up Hogan and Sheehan in the St. Patrick's bood that you have.

Lastly, I'm hoping that in Cohoes (not sure how old your info is), but I'm looking for information regarding Theresa Culhane, parents James and Elizabeth. I know Theresa (b. April 14, 1916; died in 1939) but that is all I know regarding her. She was my husband's grandmother.

Do you live in the Troy area? How did you come about obtaining the books that you have? I'm hoping to be in the Troy area in a few weeks. My sons and I will be making the trip up later next week for a 2 week visit...heading to Lake George to do some fishing but hoping to spend a day or two on my own at the courthouse and library!

Thanks for all your help!

Greetings, F. Y. I.

I just got off the phone with the secretary at St. Joseph's in Green Island.

While she was very pleasant, she made it clear that in the 19 years that she has been at the office, it has been policy to have people submit the info they seek, in writing, and it would be looked up for them. There is NO chance of viewing the registers in person. I did mention that others had been able to search the records in the past, but she repeated there is no chance that would be possible.

A year or so ago, my sister and I were "touring" Green Island, and stopped at the rectory. The priest answered the door. His only comment was, "Write down what you want and send it in." End of conversation.

So, that's that. Guess I'd better start writing. (It's not going to be pretty!!!)

I've looked at registers in another parish. Wish that was the policy everywhere, but as my granny would say: If wishes were horses, then beggars would ride.

Do you know exactly when you will be in Troy? Also Thursday is the monthly meeting of the TIGS group and it would be nice to have you attend.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Regarding the note about the grandmother expressions...my grandmother had a ton of expressions. I don't remember the one mentioned specifically but I would guess it is an "Irish Thing." My grandmother was born in NY but was of 100% Irish descent.

If ever asked her age she would reply -- "I'm as old as Ann." to which the asker would reply -- "Who's Ann and how old is she?" --- and my grandmother would reply ---"Well of course -- Ann's as old as I am." We never really did know how old she was until she died in 1990 -- 3 days before her 90th birthday.

If we ever had ringing in our ears she would warn -- "Someone's talking about you."

An itchy nose would mean -- "You're going to get in a fight."

She would make us promises of great gifts -- "When my ship comes in."

....one of the most confusing one she told us when she was going somewhere and she didn't want us to know where....

"Where are you going Grandma?"

"To Bell Heck to buy buttermilk."

To this very day, none of my siblings or I know where Bell Heck is....and she never returned with buttermilk!.

Has anyone ever heard of Bell Heck?

The buttermilk saying is interesting. I had never heard that one and tried to find it on the internet. I couldn't, but I did stumble across a neat website in the process, with Irish sayings and proverbs, etc.:

I have an addition to your itchy nose one: Have a fight or kiss a fool.

My Grandmother was also Irish but from Savannah, GA. and loaded with great expressions.

Reverse the first letters of Bell Heck and you get _ell and Back.

Both my mother and grandmother would say, when thanking you for something trivial, "Thanks. I'll dance at your wedding" meaning, "Thanks, but not much." Usually used when one of us was looking for praise for putting the trash out or cleaning up some mess we had made.

Some questions you might want to investigate:

What took her family to Butte, Montana? Many hard rock miners from the Cork copper mines ended up in Butte before it became an open pit mine. Was Daniel P. Murphy employed as a miner there?

Good Morning Frank:

Just wondering about the status of the letters "C" and "D" that you were working on.

I thought I would have an update on project for meeting on Thursday.

Regards,

Bill

Another name to add to the list of the hard to find is that of MARY ANN(E) GEOGHEGAN.

Born Aug. 1864 in Ireland, she was the half sister of my gr grandmother, JANE ANDERSON REYNOLDS (Ballymintan, Co. Roscommon, Moher, Ballinasloe, Co. Galway; Green Island & Colonie, N. Y.) She was listed as sponsor on a baptism register viewed on film in Dublin. The writing was faded and we couldn't read the name of the townland listed as her residence .

1900 Census.. servant for a private family at the WATERVLIET ARSENAL.
Troy City Directories.. cook at the PHOENIX HOTEL in Lansingburgh, and cook at LEONARD HOSPITAL, entries around 1911. (Couldn't find her on the census .)

My father and aunts told stories about when my grandfather brought her home to live with them. (Stories complete with the brogue and an imaginary shawl held around the tellers' shoulders.)

Apparently she had some connection to VANDERHEYDEN HALL, capacity unknown; don't know how/where to inquire about those records.
She died in TROY HOSPITAL Jan. 1942; have her newspaper death notice and obituary .

There was another Mary Geoghegan who worked in a collar shop about that time.

Sheila,

I'm guessing that when you say Mary Ann(e) GEOGHEGAN had some connection to Vanderheyden Hall, you're referring to the orphanage that was located on Spring Ave and not to the building on the campus of Russell Sage College.

The orphanage, originally know as the Troy Orphan Asylum, was in the 5th Ward of the City of Troy. Have you checked the census years to see if Mary Ann Geoghegan was enumerated as an employee of the orphanage?

Lynn,

My aunts said she had either worked or lived at Vanderheyden Hall, they thought. (They were probably (pre)teens when she lived with them, so who knows.)
But that's the best piece of info we have to go with right now. I would guess that it was the orphanage, but anything is possible. Thanks for the address and ward #. That will help.

I don't find it very easy to search the census for institutions on the Godfrey Library site but will, of course, try again. It's a good site, and inexpensive.

Thank you.

The hall must have had a storied life...in the early 1990s it was a delinquent institution w a 30 day assessment component.

Pat Murphy was a miner in Butte since 1885. Why would a single woman go there alone in 1890?

Do you remember htat old TV show called Here Come the Brides about when a group of women travelled to Seattle to possibly marry? It was, I recall, based on history. (and then quickly became fanciful)Could it be Butte advtised for women to help "tame" the west?? Have you tried the Butte Historical Society about that sort of advertising???

Hi Pam,

Sorry it took soooo... long to reply. I don't really know anything about Catherine Powers other than she was born abt 1865 in Ireland. She came to the US abt 1884. She married Hugh H O'NEILL abt. 1890. She died in 1943 in Troy, NY and is buried in St. John's Cemetery.

I do know that Catherine and Hugh had 4 children I know of:

Willima F b. Oct 3, 1898

Henry J b. abt 1900

Katherine T b. abt 1891 (Married John Sherry/Sheary) Elizabeth V b. 1896 or 1898 (Married John H Vaughan)

William is my gg grandfather. Any connection with your Catherine Powers???? This has been one of my more stubborn lines to follow. Not much is known. I do know they were communicants of St. Augustine's in Troy. I wrote to St. Augustine's several years ago inquiring about this family. They never responded.

To answer an earlier question of yours, the books that I got the info from that I sent you were from the American Canadian Genealogical Society. P.O. Box 6478, Manchester, NH 03108-6478. About 10 years ago I started helping them with their "Repertories" project. They get permission from different churches to go in and photocopy their Marriage, baptismal and death registers. Then volunteers enter all the info into a computer program and then all the info is compiled into these books.

They are quite expensive, but the churches I know my relatives went to are "must haves" for me. I know the Troy library also has copies of these books.

This is what I found on HOGAN & SHEEHAN:

Elizabeth G HOGAN mar. John James SHEEHAN 17 Jun 1912, St. Patrick's Church. Bride bap. 23 Apr 1882, St. Peter's, Troy, NY. Groom bap. 16 Sep 1883, St. Patricks, Troy. Brides parents: John & Mary PITTS.

Hi Again,

HOpe I didn't overload you with info. There is a lot on SHEEHAN & HOGAN.

Anyway, here is what I found in the St. Joseph's, Cohoes, NY Marriages (the baptisms & burials for this church are not out yet, they should be soon):

CULHANE, Anne Mae mar. Leo Joseph GAMACHE, 20 Nov. 1951. Bride from Egbert. Groom from Cohoes. Brides parents: James & Elizabeth BRADSHAW.

Grooms parents: Napoleon & Katherine LAROCHE. Bride bapt. 27 Apr 1908, St. Bernard, Cohoes, NY. Groom bapt. 10 Jan 1901, St. Joseph, Cohoes, NY. Witnesses: T. Francis Connery & Mary C Connery.

This may be a sister!???

I'm just realizing this is probably getting to you while you are here in NY. No I don't live in the Troy area. I live in Cobleskill, but my grandmother still lives in Troy. She will be 90 in Feb. I also have a sister in Waterford, Clifton Park and Schenectady. So I do get into the area often. I wish I had gotten this sooner and I could have made arrangements to meet with you in Troy. Hope you are having/had a good trip. Let me know if you find a connection to your POWER's.

Kathy

Do you live in the Troy area? How did you come about obtaining the books that you have? I'm hoping to be in the Troy area in a few weeks. My sons and I will be making the trip up later next week for a 2 week visit...heading to Lake George to do some fishing but hoping to spend a day or two on my own at the courthouse and library!

Hi Everyone,

I like to welcome Elizabeth Lynch to the TIGS mailing list. Below you will find information on the her family that she is researching.

I am researching my father's HAIGNEY family, who lived in the Troy area from about 1850 or so (towns I'm aware of so far include Troy, West Troy/Watervliet and Colonie). Paging through your site, I was very excited to see a listing in the Burden Iron Co. death notice database for Mary HAIGNEY, who I believe is my g-g-grandmother. This was the first indication I've had of her death date, so heartfelt thanks to all the hard-working volunteers who input all that information!

My g-grandfather, Joseph F. HAIGNEY, is listed in Troy in the 1880 census as a "peddler." After reading about the Burden Iron Co., I'm beginning to wonder whether he wasn't actually a "puddler" (whatever that is -- obviously, I have a lot to learn about the Irish in Troy). I believe Joseph's wife, Catherine (for whom I don't have a maiden name) was born in Watervliet, since that was given as her birthplace by my great-uncle when he filled out his WWI draft registration card.

So as you can see, I am getting more interested in Troy and environs by the minute. Here is my email:

eliza14@aol.com

Surname interests: HAIGNEY (Troy/Watervliet/Colonie, c.1850-1960s), KELEHER/KELLEHER (Ireland>Brooklyn, NY c. 1880), RUDROFF (Oberfranken>Brooklyn, NY, c. 1890)

Thank you so much for your time!
Elizabeth Lynch

I am going to try to go tonight, Donna. I am going to the wake of my father's cousin, Dan Halloran, tonight. Some of you might recognize the name, he wrote periodically for the Evangelist and for the Schenectady Gazette.

Sadly I will not be there next month as I will be IN Ireland, learning how to drive a stick shift on the other side of the road. Say a prayer.

Have a great time. When I was in England and drove on the "wrong side of the road", I had a terrible time with the round-a-bouts and making right turns. Good luck.

Hi Everyone,

I like to welcome Lee Connolly to the TIGS Mailing List Below you will find the information on his family that he is researching.

Lizette
List Administrator

What a surprise to see a book-loving friend (Bill McGrath) at this site!!!! And it just happens I'm doing a family history now Bill (and friends) and I would certainly like to be involved with the Troy Irish Genealogy Society. Please count me in. E-mail me at Alethea326@wmconnect.com until I get a proper screen name. I was scanning the internet(during lunch hour) and was trying to figure ways of finding out which shirt and collar factories my grandmother, Elizabeth (McLean) Connolly and her sister Anna (Gowie) Connolly worked in in Troy before they married, sometime between 1896 and 1910. Finding the branch of Connolly's that are "ours" is a challenge when I am now living in Florida!!!!!! Please reply----and offer any advice!!!!!!

Alethea Connolly, third daughter of George E. Connolly,deceased and Elizabeth (Duquette) Connolly; granddaughter of George F. Connolly and Elizabeth (McLean) Connolly; great granddaughter of Thomas F. Connolly and Mary (Maguire) Connolly; great,great granddaughter of Martin Connolly and Mary Anne (Carey)Connolly. It was Martin who came over with his brother Thomas J. (1844) and later had his mother Elloner, and his two sisters Bidelia?Bridget and Roseanne. The father Thomas died in Galway Ireland (at Woodlawn). This is what I know. Any clues!!!!!!

Bonjour Jeanne,

The page looks great. Thank you. I was surprised that the surname Sullivan does not appear in the list of names with some history. I am still looking for my very elusive great grandmother Mary Elizabeth Margaret Sullivan (Father Hugh, Mother Catherine), born in Troy, July 4, 1860. She married in Montreal (her parents were living in Montreal by then) & died near Montreal.

She is one of my main "Brick walls"!! Was she born "by accident" in Troy? I found the family in the 1860 US Census.

Thank you for all your work and your gestures of welcome to new arrivals.

Anne, Montreal

What a great website! Most of my ancestors are from the NYC and Brooklyn area, but I have a great-grandmother from Troy --- Mary Langton O'Donohoe. Through your website I've found out her wedding date, her father's death date and her father's emmigration year. This unlocked more information which led me to find out the cemetery location of many ancestors - St. Peters - and the information I needed to order death certificates.(From this I found that Mary's mother is a Keefe -- possibly O'Keefe.)

I made contact with an existing Langton family and had the pleasure, yesterday, of speaking with a second cousin once removed. We confirmed through her 90 year old mother through names and addresses

-- 83 10th Street that we are from the same Langton family.

I found it especially interesting that although the same family and descendants has been living in Troy for 150+ years, she really did not have much information -- even to the extent that she did not know that the Langtons were most definitely from Ireland -- she thought it was English! (There are some English Langtons but mine were Irish.)

Well, thanks and for those of us who live far away from Troy -- I live in PA --- it has helped me track down my Troy ancestors!

I have changed it to read " lived in Troy or the immediate surrounding area" because if you start naming towns something is bound to be left off and we will have questions like "what about Raymertown". So I think its better to leave it open, that way we are inclusionary instead of exclusionary. Thanks for the suggestion!

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Eileen, from Pennsylvania, recently complimented the TIGS Website on it's record series where she found her great grandmother listed in the marriage records and her gg grandfather listed in the death records.

It may be interesting to the TIGS list members to know how these records were compiled.

1. Burden Payroll Records - TIGS members in the Troy area automated these 17,000 plus records. As the records could not be removed from the Rensselaer County Historical Society, only local TIGS volunteers were able to work on this project.
2. Marriage and Death Records - The 2,000 plus names in the marriage data base and the 6,000 plus records in the death data base were data entered by volunteers from all across the country. As these records could be copied, we were able to use volunteers from outside the Troy area. Photocopied pages were mailed to the volunteers for data entry. There were 16 local area volunteers and nine out-of state volunteers from Utah, North Carolina, Michigan, Maryland, California, Massachusetts and Iowa who worked on the project.
3. The index of the Troy Police Department was compiled by TIGS member Joan Howe.

Currently, some local TIGS members are now working on extracting information on deaths published in the city directories for Troy, Watervliet, Green Island, Cohoes and Waterford. In addition to name and date of death, this data base will record occupation and/or employer, street address, name of widow, etc. Again, because of the availability of the source documents, this project can be worked on only by local people who have access to a city directory in the area libraries.

We are now in the planning and development stages for another very large project which can utilize volunteers from outside the Troy area. Our plans are to scan the pages from the source records and send the data via email to the volunteers for data entry into an excel spread sheet. This project will be announced on the TIGS list when it is ready.

Regarding your last message, could you tell me how I would go about accessing the marriage and death records which you mentioned, and also, the Troy police records....they might be very useful in my Callahan-Coffey research. Thanks for any help you might give me. Mimi Nicotina nicotinv@albany.net

I'll look for the project announcement and most certainly volunteer to help with data entry as you describe in your upcoming project.

Hi Everyone

I like to welcome Alethea Connolly to the TIGS mailing list. Below you will find information on her family research.

Lizette
List Administrator

My searches involve the CONNOLLY'S from Galway coming into Troy in 1844 via Whitehall, and a second batch probably in 1845 or 1846. CONNOLLY marry into the CAREY'S and COX and MAGUIRES and COYNES. I am particularly trying to find second generation Thomas Francis Connolly (my great grandfather) and my grandmother Elizabeth McLean who married GEORGE F. CONNOLLY (1909). I've lost a piece of information about Elizabeth and her sister who were collar stitchers I believe. They were cited in one TROY DIRECTORY, and years ago before I moved to FL I had that information of where they were located. If anyone has Directory's of the 1900-1910 period could you look them up and let me know their address and the way they described their work. I've found the information in the archives, minutes and the stories especially about the collar workers and iron molders very helpful and informative. This is a wonderful site and if I ever get "back to Troy" I will help with research. A. Connoll!

Kevin: That is very helpful. My grandfather, George F. Connolly, worked for Swift & Co., and in 1910 he was the bookkeeper. He has either just married or was about to. The location may help me finding the other family members (McLeans and Maguires). Do you think the first address was a family residence, or the work address? THANK YOU! A. Connolly

Hi Alethea,

I think the first address was a work address and the second one propably a rooming house. Did you ever get their marriage record, the Rensselaer County Court House (County Clerk's office) does have copies of marriage records from 1908- to abt 1935.

Here's another think I found in Directory

it's funny but there is a ANNA MC LEAN collarworker boards at 3004 Sixth Avenue

Do you know Elizabeth's parents name?

THIS IS MY FAMILY FROM TROY; I thought you could add to your list.

GGGparents, George Thompson, b.1798 in England

Anna Catherine Murphy, b.1802 in Ireland.

Children; George Henry, b.1835, d.1838. Troy NY, could not find his grave

John, b.1836, Troy, NY

Mary, b.1838, Troy, NY

William, b.1839, Troy,

Catherine, b.1840, Troy NY

Robert, b. 1841, Troy NY

GGrandparents; John married; Bridget Harrison, b.1833 NY, Her father Bryan Harrison, from Ireland, I have no record of their marriage.

Children: Catherine, b.1854, Troy NY

John, b.1857, Troy NY

Mary, b.186, Troy NY

William, b.1863, Troy NY

They had; Robert, Ida, Jane, Josephine, Adalade, & Belle, all born in Utica, MI

I was in Troy in 2000 and got part of my information from St. Peters Church, 2310 5th. Ave. where I got 3 certificates of baptism. I'm indebted to Alice Flynn, for all the help I got.

I hope this useful, regards; James Thompson, e-mail; Verjim208@aol.com

This was very important information because Anna McLean was my grandmother's sister and they both were in collar work. Is there listed a "Lillie Connolly" or Lillie McLean? Probably not -- because Elizabeth married George F. in 1909 I believe and she may have stopped working as had her first child in 1910 and he had a steady job as bookkeeper at Swift. However in 1908 or 1909 they both might still have been listed in the Directory. Also it confirms my memory of being told that before they moved up to 101st St Lansingburgh (Cemetery Ave.) they were opposite and a bit south on the block of .St. Patrick's Church. This is very helpful. Is there an address for Swift Company there? Gratefully, Alethea Connolly
